

When concrete repair history started in Sika? 1920 or 1950 or 1970

Exploring the history.

- In the 1920's and 30's Sika developed the mortar for waterproofing and repair then the development of Epoxy and polymer latex modified repair mortar took place in 1950's and 60's.

Hudson Tunnel of the Pennsylvania Railroad in New York.

By 1970's Sika introduced 1st complete Repair and protection system with Sika reinforced primer, repair mortar, leveling mortar and protective impregnations coatings

Paris underground

- As a proof of Sika's commitment to continue innovation technical leadership in Sika introduced corrosion inhibitor Sika FerroGard 903 to protect against latent and damage.

Stausee Dam- Taiwan

1996

- Recently Sika has more than 100 products fits all repair and protection market needs produced from more than 90 plants all over the world.

